

Problem Statement

Predictive Analysis of Student Academic Performance Using Machine Learning

Objective: The goal of this project is to analyze student academic data and build a machine learning model that can predict student performance based on various factors such as study time, attendance, and previous scores.